FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brick Digital Partners with Kentico

Aurora, CO, 12/2016 — Brick Digital, Inc. announced today that it has entered a partnership with Kentico Software (http://www.kentico.com), the Web Content and Customer Experience Management provider, to provide clients with a robust CMS platform and skillful custom development.

Brick Digital is known for high caliber web development and chose Kentico as the platform for their clients' websites for its ease of use, competitive pricing, reliability and features.

"Clients want a CMS that is not only stable and affordable, but intuitive to use as well," said Brandon Owens, President. "By utilizing Kentico, we are able to customize each site to a client's needs and do so quickly and within a reasonable budget."

"It's important to choose the solution that's right for your web project, but success also depends on the skills and expertise of the company that delivers your website," said Dana Tousova, Channel Marketing Manager at Kentico. "Through this partnership, we are sure that the end users of our product will be provided with top-level professional services."
